Selection Analyst Training Program

The Selection Analyst Training Program offers a state-of-the-art, comprehensive instructional curriculum for the development of selection analysts. This program provides selection analysts, whether novice or experienced, the opportunity to increase and enhance their selection-related knowledge and skills. The courses have been designed to provide participants with fundamentally sound, legally defensible, innovative means of performing selection-related work. Classes in the program are offered as stand-alone courses, individually priced, or as a curriculum package, priced at a discounted rate. The Selection Analyst Training Program is comprised of the following classes:

· OVERVIEW OF SELECTION PRINCIPLES AND SYSTEMS	$ 110 one day class
· STATISTICS MADE EASY FOR PERSONNEL SELECTION	$ 110 one day class
· JOB ANALYSIS	$ 250 two day class
· EXAMINATION PLANNING	$ 110 one day class
· PROFESSIONAL SELECTION & TEST VALIDATION	$ 110 one day class
· SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATIONS	$ 110 one day class
· DEVELOPING INTERVIEWS	$ 110 one day class
· WORK SAMPLE & PERFORMANCE TESTS	$ 110 one day class
DEVELOPING & USING WRITTEN EXAMINATIONS	$ 110 one day class
· INTERPRETING ITEM ANALYSIS	$ 110 one day class
· PASS POINT SETTING	$ 110 one day class
· SCORING MODELS	$ 110 one day class

The Selection Analyst Training Program consists of a series of classes required to achieve a Certified Selection Analyst designation. Classes can be completed in any order, however, maximum benefits will be obtained by taking them in the suggested order. In particular we recommend completing the first five before taking the remaining classes. Students will need to complete all required classes to receive the Certified Selection Analyst designation.

Information

How Do I Enroll? Your department must submit an approved Program Registration Form, SPB-46 (Rev 6/95). A copy is provided on the last page of this schedule. Registrations may be mailed or FAXed to (916) 657-2502.

Telephone registrations will not be accepted.

How Do I Pay? Payment may accompany the mailed registration, be brought to the class with you, or your department will be billed. Arrangements for billing may be made under special circumstances by calling the Technical Training Program at (916) 653-2085.

Where do I go? Technical Training Program Classes are conducted in Room 312 at the State Personnel Board, 801 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, CA 95814. We are located at the corner of 8th Street and Capitol Mall. You must check in with the security guard in the lobby prior to attending classes on the 3rd floor.

How can I be reached? Anyone who needs to reach you while you are in a training class may call our reception desk at the following numbers:

(916) 653-2085, CALNET 453-2085 or TDD (916) 654-6336

You will not be interrupted during a class unless it is an emergency. A message will be delivered to the class instructor. A telephone with a CALNET line is available for your use in the Technical Training room 312 and a pay phone is located in the lobby.

Is there accessibility?

The State Personnel Board is accessible to participants with disabilities. Please specify the nature of your impairment and what is needed to accommodate you, be specific and include your direct telephone number. The Technical Training Program will consult directly with you to determine what is necessary for accommodation under the terms of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please let us know if you wish to bring your own reader, interpreter, or service assistant. The Technical Training Program will provide a seat for your assistant without charge to your department.

Can I cancel?

If you cannot attend class, you must contact your department training coordinator either to find a substitute or to cancel the registration. If a substitute is sent, the substitute need only to sign in on the class roster in your place. If cancelling the class, the training coordinator must FAX the Technical Training Program notice of cancellation at least five (5) working days before the first day of the training class, otherwise, full tuition will be charged.

If you do not cancel in a timely manor, nor attend the class, the full tuition will be charged. To avoid a no-show status, you must attend the first scheduled day of the class.

Can I make-up the class?

If you are able to attend part of a class but unable to complete it, you may make arrangements with the Technical Training Program to make up the remainder of the class at a later date for no additional charge. Some limitations apply. Contact the Technical Training Program within 10 working days of the make-up class start date to determine if space is available.

Are there custom classes?

If there are 20 or more participants that need to enroll in the same class, the Technical Training Program may be able to arrange a session for them at your location or ours. Call us to discuss providing a special training session for your agency.

What if I have a question?

Contact us at one of the following numbers if you have any questions.

Writing Personnel Actions

(Drafting Notices of Adverse Action, Rejection, Medical, and "Without Fault" Actions)

What's the class about? The Notices of Adverse Action, Rejection During Probationary

Period, Medical Termination (Demotion or Transfer), and "Without Fault" Termination (Demotion or Transfer) are an essential component of the State's disciplinary, rejection and other processes. These Notices must comply with legal requirements and directives set forth by the State Personnel Board in policy statements and precedential decisions. Additionally, departments may choose to include "sections" and language to provide information to the subject employee. Of critical importance are the "acts or omissions" for which the employee is being disciplined, rejected etc. This class will address all of the above, as well as the processes by which an employee is served with a Notice, the documents which must accompany a Notice, and the applicable timelines for service and filing with SPB.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with an understanding of what is required and optional for inclusion in a Notice, as well as what constitutes proper service. The result will be a document that is legally correct and professional in appearance and content.

Who should attend? This class is designed for departmental staff who are responsible for drafting Notices. Staff who prepare the "package" for the individual who drafts the Notice, as well as those who review the Notice, may benefit from this class.

Who is the instructor? Bruce Monfross, Staff Counsel

State Personnel Board

or

Peggy Dalton, Staff Counsel Department of Water Resources

How much is the tuition? $110 per participant

When is the class offered? August 24, 2000 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

December 15, 2000 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. April 20, 2001 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

What You Should Know as a Skelly Officer

What's the class about?

Several adverse actions which departments initiate on their employees require that a hearing be held prior to the effective date of the action. This hearing is referred to as a "Skelly Hearing" and should be presided over by an individual who is familiar with the responsibilities of serving in this role, as well as legal and other requirements and principles applicable to the State's disciplinary, probationary period, medical and "without fault" action processes. This class also addresses the application of progressive discipline, the role of corrective measures, determining the appropriate penalty, the importance of probationary reports and annual evaluations, as well as recognizing and addressing cultural diversity in the role of a Skelly Officer. Throughout the class the State Personnel Board's precedential decisions will be cited and discussed.

What's the class objective?

Participants will learn about the "Skelly Hearing" process and the responsibilities of those involved, as well as the processes and principles leading to the necessity of initiating actions which result in a "Skelly Hearing."

Who should attend?

This class is designed for staff who serve as "Skelly Officers," and those who are involved in briefing "Skelly Officers."

Who is the instructor?

Bruce Monfross, Staff Counsel

State Personnel Board

or

Peggy Dalton, Staff Counsel Department of Water Resources

How much is the tuition?

State Personnel Board Precedential Decisions

What's the class about? This class reviews the precedential decisions issued by the State Personnel Board (SPB). The SPB Administrative Law Judges are bound to follow these decisions in issuing their proposed decisions following evidentiary hearings. The precedential decisions cover such topics as notice of adverse action, Skelly rights, legal causes for discipline, defenses to adverse action, evidentiary issues, backpay issues, rejections during probation, disciplinary transfers, non-punitive terminations, termination of limited term appointments, medical terminations, settlement agreements, drug testing, attendance, violence/threats in the workplace, alcoholism and free speech.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with an understanding of how the SPB interprets its laws and rules covering the above topics to provide a better insight into the likely outcome of cases that come before the SPB.

Who should attend? This class is designed for employees involved in drafting adverse actions and in representing parties at administrative law judge hearings.

Who is the instructor? Karen Brandt, Staff Counsel Bruce Monfross, Staff Counsel

Information Practices Act (IPA)

What's the class about? This class presents a practical approach to understanding the provisions of the IPA. Responsibilities of the department and various sections of the IPA are explained in lay terms including definition, timeframes, exemptions, conditions and accounting of disclosures, access to records, administrative and civil remedies, and construction with other laws. Differences between the IPA and the California Public Records Act (CPRA) are reviewed. Discussions and exercises focus on approaches and solutions to common IPA and CPRA issues encountered by departments.

What's the class objective? The class provides participants with a clear understanding of departments' legal responsibilities under the IPA so they may comply with the Act. It also provides a summary of the CPRA.

Who should attend? This class is designed for employees who maintain and access personal information and for those responsible for administering the IPA.

Developing and Using Low-Fidelity Simulation Exams

What's the class about? Low-fidelity simulation exams have been found to be very good predictors of job performance without the expense or logistical problems often presented by high-fidelity simulations (e.g., work samples, job tryout). This half-day class presents the theory and principles underlying the use of written low-fidelity simulation exams. Through individual and group exercises, this interactive class provides participants with the methods and techniques used to develop content-valid, written low-fidelity simulations for employee selection purposes.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with the processes used to develop and use low-fidelity simulation exams.

Who should attend? This class is designed for personnel analysts, managers, or individuals

Statistics Made Easy for Personnel Selection

What's the class about? This one-day class is designed to provide participants with an understanding of basic statistics used in the selection profession. Topics will include: means, standard deviations, standard error of measurement, correlations (e.g., reliability coefficients), standard scores (e.g., z-scores and t-scores), and linear transformation. Class content will be covered using a combination of lecture, discussion, and group exercises.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with an understanding of the interpretation and computation of basic statistics that are commonly used in the selection profession.

Who should attend? This class is designed for personnel analysts, managers, or individuals responsible for the development of employment testing and selection programs.

Participants are strongly encouraged to take this class, or a comparable statistics class, prior to taking the following Certified Selection Analyst program classes: Supplemental Applications; Developing Interviews; Work Sample and Performance Tests; Developing and Using Written Exams; Interpreting Item Analysis; Pass Point Setting; and Scoring Models. This class will provide a thorough understanding of exam statistics and measurement concepts.

Job Analysis

What's the class about? Job analysis is the foundation for many of the critical personnel decisions in your organization. This two-day workshop focuses on job analysis methods involving the identification of critical tasks and associated knowledge, skills and abilities (KSAs). The resulting multi-purpose job analysis data can be used for a wide variety of personnel activities including the design of training programs, the establishment of class specifications, human resources planning, and the development of content valid selection procedures.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with the theory, concepts, and methodology for conducting a job analysis following the task analysis model. This is an interactive class that includes group discussion and hands-on exercises. Participants complete an actual job analysis during the two-day class.

Who should attend? This class is designed for personnel staff involved in programs such as

Scoring Models

What's the class about? Scoring models determine how individual selection instruments within a total selection process fit together to appropriately assess candidate qualifications. Scoring models also establish the methodology by which individual selection instruments are scored and weighted. This one-day class introduces participants to the concepts of scoring models and provides a discussion of the issues to consider in determining scoring models for selection processes. Topics will include an introduction to scoring models, the legal considerations affecting the use of various scoring models, and how to determine the appropriate scoring model for a selection process. Through the use of hands-on activities and discussions, participants will establish scoring models and utilize the scoring process to accurately determine candidate qualifications.

What's the class objective? This class provides participants with an understanding of scoring model concepts and an introduction to various approaches used in determining scoring models for selection processes.
